

2001-02 IHSAA Boys Golf State Tournament Series

State Finals Summary

Zionsville Overcomes Weather To Win First Golf Title; Mishawaka Marian's Cole Isban Wins Individual Crown

Following a pair of lengthy rain delays, Zionsville shrugged off the inclement windy and wet conditions with a 599 total (295-304) to capture the 2002 IHSAA Boys Golf Championship on June 12-13, 2002 at the Legends of Indiana Golf Club in Franklin.

Junior Cole Isban from Mishawaka Marian nabbed individual medalist honors with rounds of 68 and 73 for a 141 total. He had tied for 3rd in 2001 as part of the team champion Knights with a 143 total (69-74).

For second-ranked Zionsville, which was coached by Dave Sollman, it was the first-ever boys golf state title and came by virtue of strong efforts by young men who crossed the finish line in the approaching dusk. That effort was led by sophomore James Sacheck who opened on Friday with a 70 and followed that up with a 74, for a 144 total. His brother, junior Tad Sacheck, contributed a 78-81-159. Senior David Kelvin fired a 75-73-148, while sophomore Chris Eline turned in 76-77-153 and Michael Weber 74-80-154.

The Richmond Red Devils, four-time state champs, finished second at 607 (295-312), with junior Chris Hockersmith showing the way with a 144 (69-75) and getting help from fellow juniors Jon Schultz at 149 (72-77), A.J. Walton at 159 (74-85) and Cody Gallagher with a 166 (81-85). Senior Luke Tidrow added a 155 (80-75).

For the Red Devils it was their third runner-up finish, having followed Indianapolis Arsenal Technical home in 1936 and South Bend Adams in 1973.

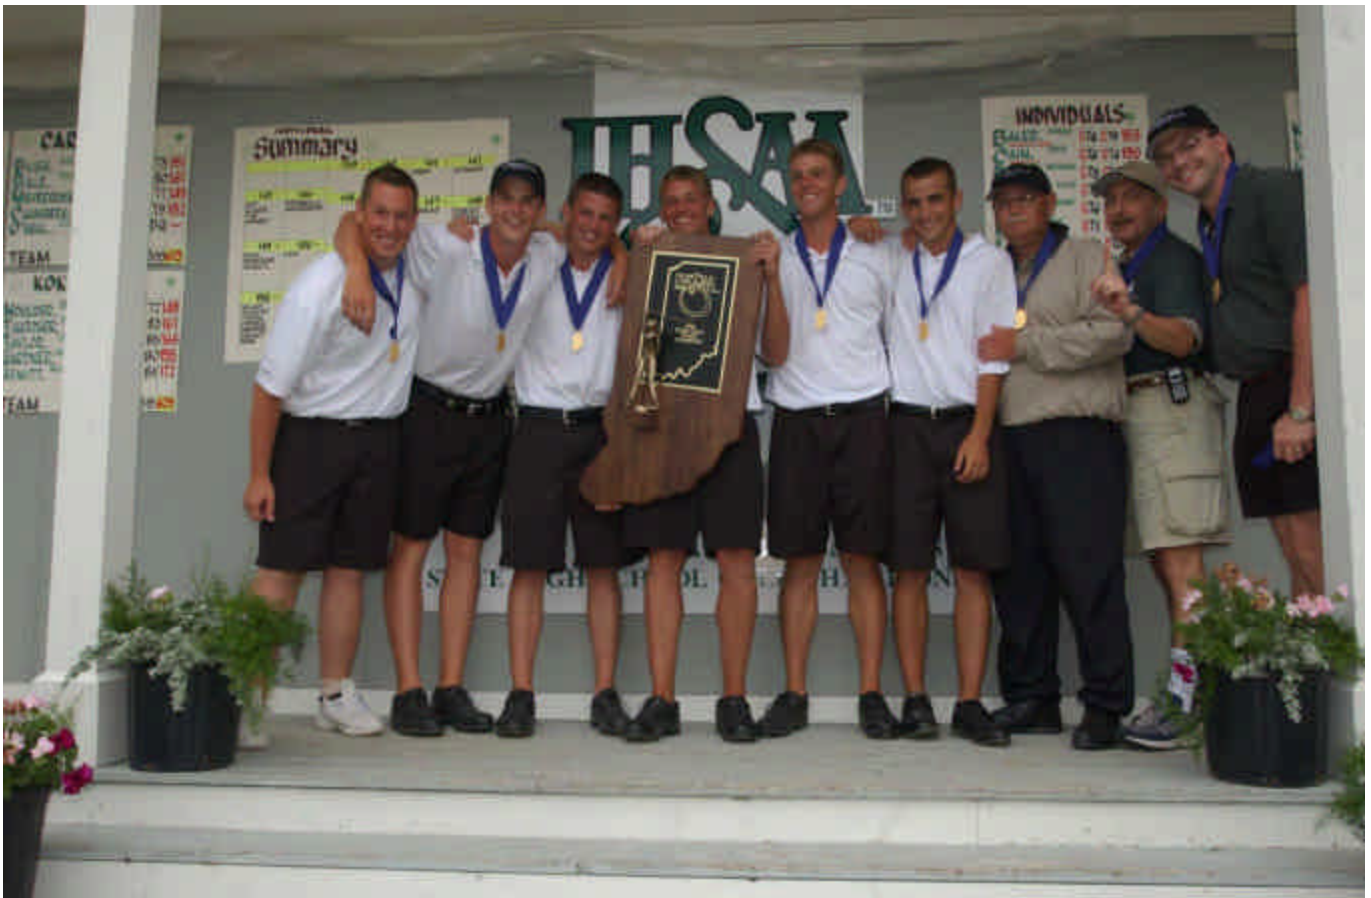

Rounding out the top five teams were Andrean (609), Wawasee (610) and Carmel (613).

Andrean junior Matt Springer was the only player in the field to turn in under-par rounds each day, firing 71-71-142 to finish in second place in the individual competition.

Isban's teammate, senior Daniel Klauer, finished in a tie for third last year at 143 (70-73) and repeated those numbers and a third place tie this year with rounds of 71-72. Senior Tim Fish of Linton-Stockton, junior John Lett of Avon and senior Justin Wenger of Warren Central joined Klauer in the third place tie. Wenger led the field after Thursday's first round firing a state finals record 66 bettering the 67 put up by New Albany's Fuzzy Zoeller in 1970 when the finals were contested at Old Oakland.

David Kelvin of Zionsville was selected by the IHSAA Board of Directors as winner of the Fred A. Keesling Mental Attitude Award for Boys Golf in 2002. Farm Bureau Insurance, the corporate sponsor of all IHSAA tournaments, presented a $1,000 scholarship to Zionsville High School in the name of David Kelvin.

A total of 3,197 student athletes from 366 teams entered the tournament series at the sectional level this year.
