

2001-02 IHSAA Girls Soccer State Tournament Series

State Finals Summary

Carmel Tops Homestead For Fifth IHSAA State Title

Top-ranked Carmel made it five titles in eight years with a 1-0 triumph over Homestead in the Eighth Annual IHSAA Girls Soccer State Finals on Saturday, October 27, 2001 at Kuntz Soccer Stadium in Indianapolis.

Freshman Angie Muir's goal at 28:01 with an assist from Caitlin Gordan broke the ice and the Greyhounds made it stick while outshooting Homestead 22-4. Carmel had 12 shots on goal to Homestead's three.

Carmel finished 23-0-1 and with a 13-game winning streak. Its only blemish was a 0-0 tie with Lawrence North back on September 17. The Greyhounds were coached by Frank Dixon, who has been part of all five titles. The others came in 1994, 1995, 1997 and 2000.

The state title was Carmel's second of the day and 70th IHSAA state championship overall. Carmel captured the IHSAA Girls Cross Country title at Bloomington earlier in the day. The Greyhounds have won at least one IHSAA state championship in every school year since 1984-85.

Homestead, making its second state finals appearance and first since 1996, finished 20-3-1. The Spartans also fell to Carmel 1-0 early in the regular season. They were coached by Pat Teagarden.

Carmel reached the state championship game via a 60 victory over Evansville Memorial in the semifinals. Homestead advanced by a 2-1 count over 2000 state runner-up Chesterton.

Lesley Wells, a senior at Carmel, was named the 2001 recipient of the IHSAA Mental Attitude Award in Girls Soccer by members of the IHSAA Executive Committee. Farm Bureau Insurance, corporate partner of the IHSAA, presented a $1,000 check in the name of Wells to Carmel High School.

A total of 198 schools and 4,592 players began competition at the sectional level.
