Farm Bureau Insurance
Corporate Partner

2000-01 YEARBOOK

Helping teens meet the challenges of youth takes more than a pledge. It takes a partner.

Athletics is about more than developing exceptional physical skills.

It's about developing critical life skills, such as discipline, leadership, and an appreciation for hard work.

Farm Bureau Insurance's twelve year corporate partnership with the Indiana High School Athletic Association has helped countless Indiana teens acquire these important life skills through athletic competition.

This corporate sponsorship is just one more example of Farm Bureau Insurance's commitment to preparing Indiana's young people for the most important game of all.

The game of life.

State Finals Summary

Martinsville rallied from a six-stroke deficit in the final round to win its sixth consecutive team title in the 28th Annual IHSAA Girls Golf State Finals at The Legends of Indiana Golf Course in Franklin. The Artesians finished at 662, followed by first-round leader Noblesville at 678 and Center Grove at 681.

It was the ninth title in the last 10 years for the Artesians, all under the direction of coach Sharon Most. Juniors Stephanie Turner and Ashlie Rose led the way for Martinsville. Both finished at 160, with Rose shooting a 74 to post Saturday's best round. Also in the lineup for the balanced Artesians were junior Carmen Bodine (86-82-168), junior Donya Stipcak (89-86-175) and sophomore Sarah Bires (91-85-176).

It was the first year the girls tournament was played at The Legends of Indiana and fourth course to serve as its host. The challenging par-72 course played 5,650 yards in breezy and soft conditions for the second round under sunny skies.

Lauren Gant of Fort Wayne Dwenger captured individual medalist honors with a final-round 77 to finish at six-over-par 150. She had held a two-stroke lead after the first round. A senior, Gant finished third in the 1999 state finals and fourth in 1998. After a bogey on No. 8 and a double bogey on No. 9, Gant rallied down the stretch. She played the final six holes in even par, highlighted by a birdie on No. 15.

Gant joined her father, Gary Gant, as the first parent-child combination to win IHSAA golf state titles. Gary Gant was the 1970 IHSAA Boys Golf champion while playing for North Central of Indianapolis. Gant's three-under-par 139 at Old Oakland in Indianapolis in the first year of 36-hole state championship play remains the boys state finals record.

Caroline Haase of Culver Academy took second individually at 76-77-153, followed by Sally Shonk of Noblesville at 75-79-154.

Sarah Sparks of East Noble, who shot a 79-83-162 to finish ninth individually, was named the 2000 recipient of the IHSAA Mental Attitude Award in Girls Golf by the IHSAA Executive Committee. Farm Bureau Insurance, corporate partner of the IHSAA, presented a $1,000 check to East Noble High School in the name of Sparks.

A total of 1,705 athletes from 244 schools began competition at the sectional level.

State Finals Summary

Team

North Central of Indianapolis fought off a stiff challenge from Homestead and captured the state championship, 4-1, in the 34th Annual Indiana High School Athletic Association Boys Tennis State Finals on October 14, 2000 at North Central High School in Indianapolis.

The Panthers (17-2), ranked third in the final coaches association poll, tallied victories at every position except No. 1 singles to claim the school's 16th state title in the sport. Top-ranked Homestead suffered its first loss of the season to finish 20-1. North Central, making its state-best 20th appearance in the state finals, has won the title the last 16 times it has made the field. Homestead, making its 15th trip to the finals, finished as the runner-up for the seventh time and the fifth time to North Central.

North Central got early victories at No. 2 singles and No. 2 doubles for a 2-0 lead in the match before the Panthers' Brian Leland delivered the clincher at No. 3 singles.

Leland (25-3) rallied from a set down to hand previously unbeaten Bob Phillipp his first loss of the year, 3-6, 6-4, 6-3. Phillipp finished 27-1 this season. At No. 2 singles, Ruben Gonzales defeated Dan Martin, 6-3, 6-0, while Eli Baratz and Greg Wynne stayed undefeated at 16-0 with a 6-4, 7-5 victory over Ted Lohman and Nick Blume at No. 2 doubles.

Kent Butcher and Mike Valinetz accounted for North Central's fourth win of the match with a three-setter over Ryan Borne and Scott Miller at No. 1 doubles, 6-3, 5-7, 7-5. Homestead's Ryan Recht tallied the Spartans lone victory. His 6-0, 6-4 win over Matt Laramore kept him unbeaten for the year at 28-0.

Homestead, coached by Jim Clark, advanced into the championship round with a 4-1 victory over Munster, while North Central blanked defending state champion Jasper, 5-0, in the other semifinal. North Central was led by second-year coach Spencer Fields who was also a No. 2 doubles player on North Central's 1992 state championship team.

Munster (22-1) swept all three singles positions in the consolation match to take a 3-2 decision from Jasper (19-4).

Kent Butcher of North Central High School in Indianapolis was selected by members of the IHSAA Executive Committee as the recipient of the Mental Attitude Award in Boys Tennis.

Farm Bureau Insurance, the IHSAA's corporate partner, presented a $1,000 scholarship to North Central High School in the name of Butcher.

A total of 297 schools and 2,902 athletes began competition at the sectional level.

Singles & Doubles

Senior Brandon Gill of Park Tudor made history by winning the singles title, while juniors Tristan Beach and Billy Elliott of Carmel captured the doubles crown in the IHSAA Singles & Doubles State Finals on October 20-21, 2000 at Five Seasons Sports Country Club in Indianapolis.

Gill downed senior Brad Rhodes of Mooresville 6-2, 6-2 to finish 8-0 in IHSAA tournament competition and 24-1 overall this season. Rhodes ended the season 9-1 in IHSAA tournament play and 26-1 overall.

Since the adoption of the current IHSAA tournament format in 1980, Gill became the first player to win a singles title and a doubles title during his career. As a sophomore in 1998, Gill combined with Wade Knall to win the doubles title for Park Tudor. He also played on Park Tudor's IHSAA state championship teams in 1997 and 1998.

The left-hander survived a 2-hour, 35-minute semifinals battle with Clint Keithley of Valparaiso to advance to the singles finals. Gill prevailed 6-2, 5-7, 6-3 against Keithley, who went on to take third-place honors. Rhodes reached the state championship match in similar fashion, taking a 2-hour, 40-minute victory over sophomore Ryan Keckley, 7-5, 6-7 (7-5), 6-4.

In the doubles competition, Beach and Elliott of Carmel cruised to a 6-1, 6-0 championship victory over John Kolb and Nick Murphy of Vincennes Lincoln.

The Carmel tandem finished 8-0 in IHSAA tournament competition and 22-0 overall this season. They survived a strong semifinals challenge from Floyd Central's Robert Briscoe and Brent Monroe before prevailing 7-6 (7-3), 4-6, 6-0. Kolb and Murphy of Vincennes Lincoln topped Elkhart Central's Cody Hawkins and Matthew Tyhach 6-1, 6-3 in the semifinals.

Floyd Central took third-place honors in doubles with a 6-0, 6-3 triumph over Elkhart Central.

State Finals Summary

Top-ranked Carmel won its fourth IHSAA Girls Soccer state title with a dominating 5-0 victory over first-time state finalist Chesterton in the championship match on October 28, 2000 at Kuntz Stadium in Indianapolis.

The Greyhounds won the inaugural IHSAA state tournament in 1994 and also took top honors in 1995 and 1997. They were the state runner-up in 1996. Carmel was coached to each of its state championships by Frank Dixon.

Sophomore Alison Brown scored twice for Carmel, who took a 3-0 halftime lead. The Greyhounds also received goals from senior Kelly Renie, junior Lesley Wells and senior Emily Heitholt. The Greyhounds outshot Chesterton 41-1, including 24-1 in shots on goal.

Carmel's five goals was a state championship game record, and the Greyhounds (22-1-1) finished tournament play unscored upon in eight games. They outscored their tournament opponents 48-0.

The title was a state-leading 66th IHSAA state championship earned by Carmel High School, all since 1970. Carmel has won at least one IHSAA state title in every school year since 1984-85.

Chesterton, coached by Kip Walton, finished 22-2.

In the semifinals, Carmel scored a decisive 3-0 victory over Noblesville and Chesterton outlasted Evansville Memorial 2-1 in a sudden-death shootout to advance to the championship match.

Junior forward Vanessa Schwoegler tallied the winning shot for Chesterton as the Trojans prevailed 5-4 in the shootout. Schwoegler's heroics came after the teams battled through two scoreless overtime periods and then deadlocked 4-4 on penalty kicks. Overall, Chesterton held a 6-1 shots-on-goal edge.

Emily Hunter of Carmel High School was named the 2000 recipient of the IHSAA Mental Attitude Award in Girls Soccer. Farm Bureau Insurance, corporate partner of the IHSAA, presented a $1,000 check to Carmel High School in Hunter's honor.

A total of 188 schools and 4,415 athletes began competition at the sectional level.

State Finals Summary

Castle captured its first IHSAA Boys Soccer state championship by outlasting three-time state champion North Central of Indianapolis 1-0 in a defensive battle that ended with the first overtime shootout in history.

After battling for 94 minutes in a scoreless duel, Coach Doug Deidrich's sixth-ranked Knights prevailed by outkicking North Central 5-3 in the shootout. Castle (22-1-2) hit all five of its kicks, while North Central scored on three of its four kicks. Castle's goals came, in order, from Keith Godfrey, Zach Roesch, Blair Kohlmeyer, Justin King and Ty Walters. The final kick, by Walters, clinched the victory.

In a tight battle all the way, Castle had a 9-8 edge in shots on goal.

The victory for Castle came after the Knights finished as state runner-up to Penn in 1999. It was just the third state championship for Castle and the first in a sport other than football (1982, 3A; 1994, 5A).

North Central (20-2-4), ranked fourth in the state coaches association poll and coached by Jerry Little, was making its first state finals appearance since 1996. The Panthers were the first IHSAA boys state champions in 1994, and repeated in 1995 and 1996.

Castle joins North Central (1994, 1995, 1996), Fort Wayne Canterbury (1997, 1998) and Penn (1999) as IHSAA boys soccer state champions.

In the semifinals, North Central scored two first-half goals and went on register a 2-1 victory over two-time state champion Fort Wayne Canterbury. Castle tallied the game's only goal midway through second half in a 1-0 triumph over first-time state finalist Portage.

Pat McBride of Castle High School was named the 2000 recipient of the C. Eugene Cato Mental Attitude Award in Boys Soccer. Farm Bureau Insurance, corporate partner of the IHSAA, presented a $1,000 check to Castle High School in McBride's name.

A total of 235 schools and 5,530 athletes began competition at the sectional level.

State Finals Summary

Amanda VanWanzeele of New Prairie joined the Valparaiso girls squad on the awards stand as state champions at the 20th Annual IHSAA Girls Cross Country State Finals on November 4, 2000 at the Indiana University Cross Country Course in Bloomington.

VanWanzeele, just a freshman, cruised across the 4,000-meter course in 14:04.7, nearly four seconds ahead of second place finisher, sophomore Tiffany Redlarczyk of Lake Central (14:08.1). Senior Jill Scully of Valparaiso placed third overall in 14:10.3 and was followed by senior Robyn Detty of Lawrence North (14:17.5) and West Lafayette junior Jessica Gall (14:26.3).

VanWanzeele became the first freshman to win the state meet since Brebeuf's Courtney Adams in 1992. Adams went on to win three titles in four years. VanWanzeele also became the second runner from her school, located in New Carlisle in LaPorte County, to win the state title. Carol Gray won the championship in 1984 and 1985, the first year the girls race was contested as a 4,000 meter event.

For Valparaiso, it was a repeat performance of last year when the Vikings won their first state championship. Valparaiso accumulated just 57 points by placing all five of its scoring runners in the top 23 overall. Carmel finished as the runner-up with 69 points, followed by Lawrence North with 110, Columbus North at 178 and Fort Wayne Northrop at 218.

Valparaiso became the fourth different school to win state titles in consecutive years in the tournament's 20-year history.

Interestingly, it was the first time that the same schools – Valparaiso, Carmel and Lawrence North – finished as the top three in both boys and girls races.

Besides Scully, the Vikings four other scoring runners were sophomore Katie Ziegler in 13th (14:50.6); sophomore Danielle Nunnelly in 16th (14:52.9), junior Natalie Karas in 17th (14:53.5) and senior Jaime Higginbotham in 23rd (15:02.3).

Valparaiso also became the third different school to sweep both boys and girls races joining Carmel (1982, 1987, 1988, 1996) and Floyd Central (1991).

Robyn Detty of Lawrence North High School, was selected by members of the IHSAA Executive Committee as the recipient of the Mental Attitude Award. Farm Bureau Insurance, the corporate partner of the IHSAA, presented a $1,000 scholarship to Lawrence North High School in the name of Detty.

A total of 351 schools and 2,776 athletes began competition at the sectional level.

State Finals Summary

Aaron Fisher of Franklin Central ran to a historic title and the Valparaiso boys team won another championship at the 55th Annual IHSAA Boys Cross Country State Finals on November 4, 2000 at the Indiana University Cross Country Course in Bloomington.

Fisher, a senior, finished nearly 13 seconds ahead of the second place runner to win his third consecutive IHSAA state championship. He became just the second runner to accomplish the feat and the first in more than 50 years joining John Stayton of Anderson, who won the first three state championship races in 1946, 1947 and 1948.

Fisher crossed the line in 15:11.5, easily the best of his three state title runs. He clocked a 15:34.0 last year and a 15:30.5 as a sophomore in 1998. Junior Michael Hashel of Winamac, who led a portion of the race, finished second in 15:24.0. Junior Kaleb Vanort of DeKalb placed third in 15:40.3, senior David Welch of Bloomington North was fourth at 15:43.8 and Carmel senior Charlie Koeppen rounded out the top five in 15:43.9.

Valparaiso's boys placed first as a team to match the Valparaiso girl's championship run and won its second state title in four years and its sixth overall (1966, 1983, 1985, 1986, 1997). Senior Joe Dillabaugh led the way for the Vikings finishing 11th overall in 15:51.9. Junior Eric Fleming was close behind in 14th in 15:55.8. Also scoring for Valparaiso were sophomore Jeff Kent in 18th (16:00.5), senior Ryan Hopper in 35th (16:22.2) and junior Matt Costakis in 53rd (16:32.4).

Valparaiso finished with 79 points and was followed by Carmel in second place (111), Lawrence North (127), Franklin (147) and Warren Central (215). Interestingly, it was the first time that the same schools – Valparaiso, Carmel and Lawrence North – finished as the top three in both boys and girls races. Defending state champion Portage finished in 13th place.

Valparaiso also became the third different school to sweep both boys and girls races joining Carmel (1982, 1987, 1988, 1996) and Floyd Central (1991).

Aaron Fisher of Franklin Central High School was selected as the recipient of the Charles F. Maas Mental Attitude Award by the IHSAA Executive Committee. He becomes the second consecutive recipient from Franklin Central following Brian Dunn, the 1999 award winner. Farm Bureau Insurance, the corporate partner of the IHSAA, presented a $1,000 scholarship to Franklin Central High School in the name of Fisher.

2000-01 Charles F. Maas
Mental Attitude Award
Aaron Fisher
Franklin Central High School

At the conclusion of the state finals, the IHSAA Executive Committee will present the Charles F. Maas Mental Attitude Award to the outstanding senior participant in the boys cross country state tournament.

The award was named after the late Charles F. Maas by the IHSAA Executive Committee on February 3, 1985. Mr. Maas devoted a lifetime to the high school athletic programs as player, coach, athletic director and IHSAA Assistant Commissioner from 1973 until his passing in 1984.

The recipient of this award, who was nominated by his principal and coach, must excel in mental attitude, scholarship, leadership and athletic ability in cross country.

Farm Bureau Insurance, IHSAA corporate sponsor, will present a $1,000 scholarship to the school in the name of the recipient.

State Finals Summary

Class 5A

Penn celebrated its fourth state title in the last six years and fifth overall with a 21-0 triumph over Center Grove in the Class 5A championship game of the 28th Annual IHSAA Football State Finals on Saturday, November 25, 2000 at the RCA Dome in Indianapolis.

Penn quarterback Eric Moore set the tone by hitting 10 of 10 passes for 156 yards and three touchdowns in the first half. Moore finished 13-for-16 for 181 yards as the Kingsmen kept it on the ground for most of the second half.

The Kingsmen struck on their opening possession, a 64-yard pass from Moore to Sam Penrod. Moore then hit Ian Smith on a 16-yard strike with 9:35 left in the second quarter and ended the first half with a 13-yarder to Blair Donat with 0:18 seconds remaining to cap a 12-play, 79-yard drive.

The victory completed a 14-1 season for second-ranked Penn, whose only loss was to Ben Davis. Center Grove, making its first appearance in the football state finals, was coached by Eric Moore (not to be confused with the Penn quarterback of the same name). The Trojans finished 13-2, with its only other loss also at Ben Davis.

Penn's other Class 5A titles came in 1995, 1996 and 1997. The Kingsmen were the Class 4A state champions in 1983 when the tournament was played in a four-class format. Penn finished as the state runner-up in 1989, 1991, and 1999, all in Class 5A.

The five state titles moves the Kingsmen into a tie for second among schools with the most football championships. Penn joins Ben Davis, Carmel, Indianapolis Cathedral and Roncalli with five each. Only Sheridan, with six, has more.

Each of Penn's state championship game appearances came under the direction of coach Chris Geesman, who has compiled a 287-44 record in 27 seasons with the Kingsmen. With his fifth state championship, Geesman moves into third place on the list of most titles by a coach. Sheridan's Larry "Bud" Wright and Ben Davis' Dick Dullaghan have won six each.

Justin Smith, a senior at Penn High School, was selected by the IHSAA Executive Committee as the 2000 recipient of the Phil N. Eskew Award for Mental Attitude in Class 5A football. Farm Bureau Insurance, corporate partner of the IHSAA, presented a $1,000 check to Penn High School in Smith's name.

Attendance for Saturday's three-game session was 27,744 for a five-game total of 42,881.

A total of 15,438 athletes from 309 schools entered the tournament at the sectional level.

Class 4A

East Noble jumped to a 14-0 lead and ran up 359 yards on the way to a 28-7 victory over Plainfield for the Class 4A title -- its first IHSAA state championship in any sport.

East Noble (14-1), ranked sixth in the final Associated Press poll (eighth in the coaches poll), was coached by Tim Able, who guided the Knights to their first appearance in the football state finals this year.

The Knights scored on three consecutive possessions in the first half to take control of the game. Senior Jesse Cox ran in a 7-yard score at 6:18 of the first quarter and after Plainfield's next drive stalled at its own 44-yard line, East Noble quarterback/defensive back David Gater blocked the punt which was recovered in the endzone by Josh Hitzeman. Cox ran in the two-point conversion for a 14-0 East Noble lead.

On its next possession, Plainfield put its lone score on the board when Tommy Restivo carried the ball 2 yards to make it 14-7 with 8:50 left in the first half. Gater then drove the Knights on a 10-play, 73-yard drive that took 5:57 and gave East Noble a 21-7 advantage with 2:53 left before the half.

After a scoreless third quarter, Tyler Knox then carried several would-be tacklers into the endzone from 11 yards out with 9:26 to go in the game to account for East Noble's final touchdown.

Offensively, Gater completed 6-of-8 passes for 89 yards and a touchdown. Defensively, besides the blocked punt, he had five tackles and picked off two Plainfield passes to raise his season total to 13, tied for second in the state this year. He also returned two punts for 68 yards and one kickoff for 35 yards.

Cox carried 26 times for 168 yards in rushing for East Noble.

The East Noble defense held Plainfield to just 166 yards on offense and limited Restivo to just 40 yards on the ground, 128 yards below his average. Jeremy Happel led East Noble with 9 tackles, while Cory Partlow recorded 12 stops and Restivo 9 for the Quakers.

Plainfield, coached by Chuck Schwanekamp, suffered its first loss of the season finishing 14-1.

Cory Partlow, a senior at Plainfield High School, was selected by the IHSAA Executive Committee as the 2000 recipient of the Phil N. Eskew Award for Mental Attitude in Class 4A football. Farm Bureau Insurance, corporate partner of the IHSAA, presented a $1,000 check to Plainfield High School in Partlow's name.

Class 3A

Heritage Hills quarterback Jay Cutler caught a 12-yard pass from Cole Seifrig on the Patriots' second play from scrimmage in overtime to win the Class 3A state championship, 27-24, over Zionsville.

Seifrig caught a lateral on the right side of the field and then threw back across the field to a wide-open Cutler who sprinted into the endzone for the winning score giving top-ranked (Associated Press) Heritage Hills its first state championship in any team sport.

Sixth-ranked Zionsville (11-4) had taken the lead on its first overtime possession when Mark Nicolet connected on a 24-yard field goal to give the Eagles a 24-21 lead. Nicolet missed the potential game-winning field goal from 34 yards out with :01 remaining in regulation.

It was just the third overtime game played in state finals history (116 games) and the first in 14 years. The most recent overtime contest was the 1986 Class 5A championship, won by Carmel, 20-17, over Fort Wayne Snider. The 1977 Class 2A game was decided in double overtime when Plymouth outlasted Jasper, 20-14.

The Patriots, coached by Bob Clayton, finished the season 15-0 in their first appearance in the state finals.

After falling behind 7-0 at 4:01 of the first quarter, Heritage Hills responded with three scores to take a 21-7 halftime lead.

Seifrig, a sophomore running back, ignited the onslaught with a 56-yard run on the third play of the Heritage Hills drive after Zionsville's initial score. After stopping Zionsville on a three-and-out, Heritage Hills scored again on its first play from scrimmage via a 60-yard touchdown run by Matt Hagedorn. The third Heritage Hills scoring drive started when Seifrig picked off a Corey Richmond pass for his sixth interception of the season. The Patriots mounted an 11-play, 69-yard drive that consumed 5:37 and ended with a one-yard run by Cutler.

Zionsville responded with two early scores in the third quarter to tie the score at 21. The Eagles closed to 21-14 at 6:30 of the third quarter when Ryan Wagner capped an 11-play, 78-yard drive to start the second half. Wagner gained 62 yards in the drive, including the one-yard touchdown. Corey Richmond followed with an interception on Heritage Hills' second play, launching an eight-play, 50-yard drive that ended with a three-yard touchdown by Wagner at 2:36, his third score of the day.

Zionsville had a chance to take the lead at 8:40 of the fourth quarter, but Nicolet's 28-yard field goal attempt sailed wide left with the score tied 21-21.

The Eagles finished with a Class 3A title game record 424 yards on offense and its defense held Heritage Hills to only 35 plays on offense, another Class 3A game record.

Fifth-year coach Larry McWhorter led Zionsville into the state finals for the second time in five years having won the 1996 Class 3A title when McWhorter was a first-year coach.

Adam Kress, a senior at Heritage Hills High School, was selected by the IHSAA Executive Committee as the 2000 recipient of the Phil N. Eskew Award for Mental Attitude in Class 3A football. Farm Bureau Insurance, corporate partner of the IHSAA, presented a $1,000 check to Heritage Hills High School in the name of Kress.

Class 2A

Riding the hot hand of junior quarterback Jake Schiff, second-ranked Evansville Mater Dei stormed to a 42-3 halftime lead on the way to a 56-10 victory over top-ranked Fort Wayne Bishop Luers in the Class 2A championship game on Friday, November 24, 2000 at the RCA Dome in Indianapolis.

Evansville Mater Dei became the first Evansville school to win a football state championship in the 28-year history of the tournament.

Schiff opened the game by hitting his first 11 passes. By halftime, Schiff had connected on 15 of 17 attempts for 206 yards while guiding Evansville Mater Dei to touchdowns on each of its first six possessions. Schiff finished 16 of 23 for 218 yards and three touchdowns.

Senior running back Nathan Wildeman complemented Schiff's passing with 169 yards and four touchdowns on a Class 2A championship game-record 29 carries. Wildeman finished the season with 1,870 yards and 31 rushing touchdowns.

Wildeman scored on runs of 1, 4, 12 and 10 yards for the No. 2-ranked Wildcats, who accumulated 432 yards of offense (214 rushing, 218 passing).

Kyle Lindsay kicked a 19-yard field goal in the first quarter for Bishop Luers and Troy Wyss caught a 25-yard pass from Lindsay in the third quarter.

The victory capped a perfect 15-0 season for the Wildcats and fourth-year head coach Mike Goebel. The championship was the first in football for Goebel, now in his 22nd year with the program, but the eighth in his coaching career. He has led the Wildcat wrestling team to seven IHSAA state championships, including its state record sixth consecutive last winter.

It was the first loss in 22 games for Fort Wayne Luers, and ended a tournament run of 11 games for the 1999 state champions.

Dominic Faraone, a senior at Evansville Mater Dei High School, was selected by the IHSAA Executive Committee as the 2000 recipient of the Phil N. Eskew Award for Mental Attitude in Class 2A football. Farm Bureau Insurance, corporate partner of the IHSAA, presented a $1,000 check to Evansville Mater Dei High School in Faraone's name.

Class A

Ignited by a 55-yard punt return for a touchdown in the game's first two minutes, Adams Central led all the way and held off Attica's second half rally for a 29-21 victory in the Class A state championship game and its first IHSAA state title in any sport.

Senior quarterback Nicholas Houk threw for 149 yards and three touchdowns to lead the Flying Jets to their sixth consecutive victory.

After forcing Attica to punt on its opening possession, Adams Central's Nick Foreman took the punt 55 yards for the first score of the game at the 10:39 mark. Foreman's return was a Class A championship game record.

Adams Central (12-3), unranked in the final state coaches poll, led 29-6 at halftime on Houk's three touchdown passes, two of which went to Curt Garwood. Garwood's second touchdown reception, a 28-yarder came with 2:23 left before halftime.

Top-ranked Attica (14-1), which won its first sectional championship three weeks ago, staged a furious second half rally that fell short when the Red Ramblers were held on fourth and two at the Adams Central 3-yard line with 5:43 remaining in the game and trailing 29-21. Adams Central took over on downs and converted four first downs in the final minutes to put the game away.

Attica pulled within 29-13 on senior running back Josh Smith's second touchdown run of the day, a two-yarder that capped a 13-play, 53-yard drive. The Ramblers trimmed the deficit to 29-21 when Tim Powell ran in a 15-yard end around. Travis Childress caught the two-point conversion from Theron Schmid.

Smith finished with 230 yards on the ground in 42 carries to break the overall state finals record for most attempts in a game. The previous record was held by Rick Endsley of DeKalb, who carried 41 times in the 1986 Class 4A final. The previous Class A record was 40 by Tim Alspaugh of Tippecanoe Valley in 1979.

Adams Central ran only seven plays in the first quarter compared to 30 for Attica. Following the punt return for a touchdown by Foreman, the Flying Jets took a 13-0 lead on their next possession when Houk connected with Garwood from 16 yards out. Adams Central maintained the lead the rest of the way.

Josh Smith, a senior at Attica High School, was selected by the IHSAA Executive Committee as the 2000 recipient of the Phil N. Eskew Award for Mental Attitude in Class A football. Farm Bureau Insurance, corporate partner of the IHSAA, presented a $1,000 check to Attica High School in Smith's name.

Friday's two-game session drew 15,137 fans.

Phil N. Eskew Mental Attitude Award

At the conclusion of each state championship game, the IHSAA Executive Committee will present the Phil N. Eskew Mental Attitude Award to an outstanding senior participant in the Football State Finals. The recipients of this award, who were nominated by their principals and coaches, have demonstrated excellence in mental attitude, scholarship, leadership and athletic ability in football.

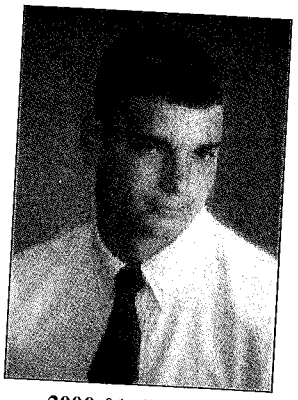

The award is named in honor of the late Phil N. Eskew, third commissioner of the IHSAA, who served the Association from 1962 to 1976. Under his direction, the IHSAA football tournament was initiated in 1973.

Farm Bureau Insurance, the corporate partner of the IHSAA, will present a $1,000 scholarship to each of the schools in the name of the recipients.

State Finals Summary

Before a record crowd of 2,518, Carmel extended its record run of state championships to 15 and its overall count to 16 titles in the 27th Annual IHSAA Girls Swimming and Diving State Finals on February 10, 2001 at the Indiana University Natatorium in Indianapolis.

The Greyhounds prevailed by 78-point margin over North Central of Indianapolis. The same teams had finished 1-2 a week earlier in the Carmel Sectional. Carmel totaled 313 in the state meet, followed by North Central (235), Columbus North (199), Chesterton (146.5) and Hamilton Southeastern (121).

Carmel's only title came from senior Tenley Bick in the 100 breaststroke in 1:05.72.

First-year Carmel coach Ken Stopkotte, who came to the perennial state power from the Cincinnati Marlins last summer, celebrated his first Indiana state title. He's the third coach to direct Carmel to an IHSAA girls swimming and diving state title, joining Ray Lawrence (six titles) and Tony Young (nine titles).

Three state finals records were set during the meet, including two in the final round. Those were secured by sophomore Katherine Robinson of South Dearborn in the 100 butterfly and senior Lacey Boutwell of Noblesville in the 100 freestyle. Robinson's 55.23 broke the standard of 55.40 set by Michala Kwasny of Fort Wayne Snider in 1997-98. Boutwell's 49.77 topped the 50.02 by Lindsay Benko of Elkhart Central in the 1993-94 state finals. Benko went on to swim at the University of Southern California and was on a gold medal-winning relay team for the U.S. at the 2000 Sydney Olympics.

Boutwell's record in the 100 freestyle gave her two IHSAA state titles as she closed her career. She also set the IHSAA record mark of 22.90 in the 50 freestyle as a freshman in 1997-98.

The third meet record was set in the preliminaries by Chesterton senior Jenni Anderson in the 100 backstroke. Anderson went 55.24 in the preliminaries and followed with a 55.67 for her third straight state championship. Anderson held off a strong challenge from Robinson in the 50 freestyle for her third consecutive title in that event.

Sara Gonso of North Central, appearing in her fourth state finals, broke through for her first diving state title. The senior enjoyed a superlative day with a 51-point margin of victory and flirted with the meet's 18-year-old points record by totaling 466.10 points in her 11-dive program. The state finals record is 473.30 by Dana Wiegand of Franklin in 1982-83. Gonso was the state runner-up as a freshman and a junior, and finished third as a sophomore.

North Central scored a big upset early in the meet when sophomore Susan Hentschel overcame a significant advantage to top-seeded Lacey Boutwell with a strong finish in the final 50 yards of the 200 freestyle. Hentschel finished in 1:49.73 for her first individual title. She also was the anchor in the Panthers' 200 freestyle relay and 400 freestyle relay championship units.

Sophomore Leah Retrum of Columbus North celebrated twice by repeating in the 500 freestyle (4:49.96) and winning her first 200 individual medley (2:02.54) crown.

Columbus North opened the meet by ending Carmel's 14-year reign in the 200 medley relay with a 1:48.16 clocking. Carmel touched in second at 1:48.77.

In addition to the record attendance for the final session, the two-day crowd of 4,470 also was a state meet record.

Jenni Anderson of Chesterton High School was named the 2001 recipient of the IHSAA Mental Attitude Award in Girls Swimming and Diving by the IHSAA Executive Committee. Farm Bureau Insurance, the corporate partner of the IHSAA, awarded a $1,000 scholarship to Chesterton High School in Anderson's name.

State Finals Summary

Individual State Finals

Ten wrestlers finished unbeaten as 14 state champions were crowned on Saturday evening, February 17, 2001 in the 63rd Annual IHSAA Individual Wrestling State Finals at Conseco Fieldhouse in Indianapolis.

Leading the list of unbeatens was repeat champ J.T. Young of Bloomington South.

The 135-pound champion in 2000, Young returned to topple the field at 140 pounds with a pin of Lawrence Central's Danny Creasap at 1:33 of the championship match. The senior capped his second consecutive undefeated season at 43-0 and finished with a two-year record of 84-0. He became the 62nd IHSAA state champion (a state best) to hail from Bloomington South since the IHSAA began hosting the tournament in 1933.

Six-time defending team champion Evansville Mater Dei placed four wrestlers in the championship round and three wound up with titles.

Sophomore Craig Weinzapfel pinned Fort Wayne North Side's Gralan Early at the 3:05 mark of the 112-pound final. His senior cousin, Allen Weinzapfel, earned a first place medal of his own in a hard-fought 13-10 decision over Fort Wayne Snider's Jason Woodson at 160 pounds. Allen was also an all-state defensive back for the Wildcats' state champion Class 2A football team last fall. Blake Maurer added the third crown of the night for Mater Dei completing a perfect freshman campaign at 42-0 with a 3-2 decision over Beech Grove junior Nick Hobbs at 130.

Lake Central collected two state championships in back-to-back matches at 145 and 152 pounds. Junior Michael Escobedo (145 pounds) finished unscathed at 43-0 following a 7-5 victory over Mike McCarthy of Mt. Vernon (Fortville). Escobedo finished second to Young at 135 pounds last year. Senior Michael Engberg-Bartley followed at 152 pounds with a 3-1 overtime decision over Justin Denison of Floyd Central.

Also finishing with perfect records were:

103 pounds – Senior Aaron Clark of Franklin (48-0).

119 pounds — Alex Tsirtsis of Griffith completed his freshman year unbeaten at 57-0. He became the first wrestling state champion in his school's history.

125 pounds – Senior Cameron Sakon of Indianapolis Cathedral. Sakon (50-0) joined his brother, Eric (140 pounds in 1997) as a state champion. His opponent, Jason Cook of Valparaiso finished as a runner-up for the second time in three years. In 1999, Cook finished second at 103 pounds.

171 pounds – Senior Ben Wissel of Richmond (43-0).

215 pounds – Sophomore Jake O'Brien of Franklin Central (43-0).

275 pounds – Senior Greg Wagner of Fort Wayne Snider (47-0). Wagner finished as the runner-up at 275 pounds last year.

In other championship bouts, Warren Central junior Danny Williams won a 7-2 decision at 135 pounds over Lawrence North's Tom Schneider and; Perry Meridian junior Nathan Moore shutout Charles Geyer of Fort Wayne Elmhurst, 3-0, in the 189 pound match.

Saturday evening's attendance was 10,194 to bring the two-day, three-session total to 27,913. This year's state finals was condensed to three sessions from the four-session event of previous years.

J.T. Young, a senior at Bloomington South High School, was named the 2001 recipient of the Ward E. Brown Mental Attitude Award as selected by the Executive Committee of the Indiana High School Athletic Association. Farm Bureau Insurance, the corporate partner of the IHSAA, presented a $1,000 scholarship to Bloomington South High School in the name of Young.

Team State Finals

Top-ranked and undefeated Evansville Mater Dei won its seventh consecutive state championship in decisive fashion, posting three solid victories to complete a 21-0 season in the 2001 IHSAA Team Wrestling State Finals on Saturday, February 24, 2001 at Center Grove High School in Greenwood.

The Wildcats won four of the first five matches to gain control in the championship round against Portage on the way to a 40-16 victory. Earlier in the day, Evansville Mater Dei defeated Franklin 43-12 in the opening round and Lawrence North 40-15 in the semifinals.

Five Evansville Mater Dei wrestlers went 3-0 for the day. Those were Craig Macke (103 pounds), Dustin Nosko (125), Blake Maurer (130), Chad Raben (140 and 145), and Neil Reddington (171).

Portage (33-2), ranked fourth in the final coaches association poll at the end of the regular season, defeated Southmont 59-11 in the opening round and Mishawaka 35-22 in the semifinals. The Indians had four wrestlers who finished the day 3-0 — David Persin (11), Darren Elkins (135), Jacob Cohen (189) and Scott Buhman (215).

Coached by Mike Goebel for each of its championships during the current run, Evansville Mater Dei extended its record string of IHSAA wrestling championships. The streak began in 1995 when the team title was decided on the basis of team points earned in the individual state meet. It has continued since 1996 under the dual-meet format now employed to determine the team championship. Evansville Mater Dei also won a state title in 1986. Additionally, Goebel became just the ninth individual in IHSAA history to coach two state championship teams in the same school year. He led the Wildcats to the Class 2A football title in November.

State Finals Summary

Class 4A

Sparked by a third quarter run, Ben Davis rolled to a 69-45 triumph over Fort Wayne Snider and claimed its second straight Class 4A state title on Saturday, March 3, 2001 at Conseco Fieldhouse in Indianapolis.

With the victory, the Giants made it a clean sweep as all four of last year's state champions successfully defended their titles.

Holding a 23-21 advantage at halftime, Ben Davis stepped up the defensive pressure in the third period behind a 23-3 run and never looked back. Seniors Ashley Allen and Shyra Ely paced the Giants in scoring with 20 and 19, respectively. Freshman Janese Banks added 12 points. Four players shared scoring honors for Fort Wayne Snider at seven points each.

Turnovers plagued Fort Wayne Snider during the contest. The Panthers committed 30 in the game and Ben Davis took advantage scoring 31 points off those miscues. Allen set a Class 4A record with nine steals in the game.

(Class 4A) Third-ranked Ben Davis completed a 27-2 year under 16th-year coach Stan Benge. Anchored by four-year starters Shyra Ely and Ashley Allen, the Giants finished 106-6 during their careers.

Eighth-ranked Fort Wayne Snider finished its runner-up year at 25-3 under coach Lamar Kilmer, who is retiring after 21 years leading the Panthers.

Shyra Ely of Ben Davis High School was selected as the recipient of the Patricia L. Roy Mental Attitude Award in Class 4A Girls Basketball by the IHSAA Executive Committee. Farm Bureau Insurance, the corporate partner of the Indiana High School Athletic Association, presented a $1,000 scholarship to Ben Davis High School in the name of Ely.

Class 3A

Indianapolis Cathedral jumped out to an early lead and never looked back in a 54-39 victory over Plymouth in the Class 3A championship game of the IHSAA State Finals on Saturday, March 3, 2001 at Conseco Fieldhouse in Indianapolis.

With the win, Cathedral collected its second straight state championship in Class 3A in its third consecutive trip to the state finals. The Irish (29-1) fell to NorthWood, 72-71, in 1999 but returned a year ago to down Columbia City, 58-44. Cathedral's three-year record is 83-3, including 56-2 in its two championship years.

Fourteenth-year coach Linda Bamrick guided the (Class 3A) top-ranked Irish, who were led in scoring by junior Jessica Wright's 16 points. Classmate Sharika Webb tallied 12 points and senior Asjah Zinnerman added 10.

Cathedral led throughout holding leads of 13-3 after one period, 29-13 at halftime and 39-22 at the end of three.

Cathedral shot an uncharacteristic 34 percent (18-53) from the field, but held Plymouth to just 20.3 percent on 12-59 shooting. The Pilgrims turned the ball over 18 times, which resulted in 16 fast-break points for the Irish.

(Class 3A) Seventh-ranked Plymouth (22-6), making its first-ever appearance in the girls state finals, was led by senior center Brandy Swihart's 14 points. Swihart also gathered a Class 3A record 14 rebounds (eight offensive).

Carin Benge of Plymouth High School was selected as the recipient of the Patricia L. Roy Mental Attitude Award in Class 3A Girls Basketball by the IHSAA Executive Committee. Farm Bureau Insurance, the corporate partner of the Indiana High School Athletic Association, presented a $1,000 scholarship to Plymouth High School in the name of Benge.

Class 2A

Fort Wayne Bishop Luers won its record third straight state championship with a 55-39 victory over previously unbeaten Shenandoah in the IHSAA Class 2A title contest on Saturday, March 3, 2001 at Conseco Fieldhouse in Indianapolis.

Bishop Luers became the first school in the 26-year history of the girls tournament to win three consecutive state championships. All three have come in Class 2A. Others to win two straight titles were: Crown Point (1984, 1985), Kokomo (1992, 1993) and Martinsville (1997, 4A in 1998).

The (Class 2A) top-ranked Knights, coached by Gary Andrews, finished this season at 28-0 and with a two-year record of 53-1. The win also extended their winning streak to 37 games.

Luers' junior forward Megan Dossen led all scorers with 23 points finishing 8-for-13 and hitting 7-of-8 free throws. Senior guard Rachel King added 20 points and pulled down nine rebounds.

The Bishop Luers defense created more problems for the Raiders. The Knights converted 19 points off of 21 Shenandoah turnovers and senior forward Emily Loomis blocked four shots. Senior guard Tracie Hancock scored 10 points for Shenandoah but was the only Raider to reach double figures. Senior Kelly Troxell, the team's leading scorer during the year at 18.2 points per game, was held to nine points.

It was the first loss of the year for (Class 2A) third-ranked Shenandoah, coached by Todd Salkoski. The Raiders, who were making their first appearance in the girls basketball state finals, finished up 25-1.

Rachel King of Bishop Luers High School in Fort Wayne was selected as the recipient of the Patricia L. Roy Mental Attitude in Class 2A Girls Basketball by the IHSAA Executive Committee. Farm Bureau Insurance, the corporate partner of the Indiana High School Athletic Association, presented a $1,000 scholarship to Bishop Luers High School in the name of King.

Class A

Spurred by a hot start in the opening minutes of the game, Triton successfully repeated as the Class A state champion with a 55-38 victory over White River Valley in the IHSAA Girls Basketball State Finals at Conseco Fieldhouse in Indianapolis on Saturday, March 3, 2001.

The top-ranked Trojans (23-3) jumped out to a 16-0 lead and a trapping pressure defense held White River Valley scoreless until the 1:33 remained in the opening period. Triton maintained control with a 20-3 advantage at the break as the first period proved to be the difference in the game with both teams playing even the rest of the game.

Triton, coached by Mark Heeter, ballooned its lead to as many as 21 points in the second period and led 28-13 at halftime. The Wolverines managed to chip away at the lead cutting it to eight points at 40-32 on a three-pointer by April Williams early in the fourth quarter but could get no closer.

Elizabeth Salyer led Triton with 13 points and equaled a Class A record with 15 rebounds. Amber Feldman and Ashli Senff added 10 a piece. Feldman hit the game-winning three-pointer in last year's championship. White River Valley was led in scoring by Ashlee Arthur's 14 points.

(Class A) Second-ranked White River Valley, which was making the school's first state finals appearance in any sport, finished 22-6 under coach Joe Pigg.

April Williams of White River Valley High School was selected as the recipient of the Patricia L. Roy Mental Attitude Award for Class A girls basketball by the IHSAA Executive Committee. Farm Bureau Insurance, the corporate partner of the Indiana High School Athletic Association, presented a $1,000 scholarship to White River Valley High School in the name of Williams.

The IHSAA Executive Committee presents the Patricia L. Roy Mental Attitude Award in Girls Basketball to an outstanding senior participant in each classification of the State Finals Girls Basketball Tournament.

The recipients of this award, who were nominated by their principals and coaches, must excel in mental attitude, scholarship, leadership and athletic ability in basketball.

A member of the IHSAA executive staff since 1972, Ms. Roy was responsible for girls basketball from the inception of the tournament series in 1976 until her retirement in June 1999. Regarded both statewide and nationally as a pioneer in girls athletics, Roy served on the IHSAA executive staff longer than anyone in the history of the Association.

State Finals Summary

Using its superior depth, Carmel reclaimed the IHSAA boys swimming and diving state championship on Saturday, February 24, 2001 at the Indiana University Natatorium in Indianapolis.

After a three-year absence from the podium's top spot, the Greyhounds easily outdistanced the competition racking up 274.5 points, 80 points better than runner-up North Central of Indianapolis with 194.5. Fort Wayne Concordia placed third with 174, Hamilton Southeastern was fourth at 146 and three-time defending state champion Columbus North was fifth at 118.

Carmel won two relay events (200 and 400 freestyle relays) and finished second in another that accounted for 114 points, but the Greyhounds also had 19 individuals in the championship and consolation finals that scored. Overall, Carmel scored in nine of the 12 events.

The Greyhounds were coached by first-year leader Ken Stopkotte, who also guided the Carmel girls team to its 15th consecutive state championship two weeks ago.

It was the school's eighth state title in the last 12 years in boys swimming and the third in a sport this school year (girls soccer).

Two state meet records fell during the day's action. Senior Ryan Wochomurka of Columbus North won his second event by setting the new standard in the 100 freestyle at :44.36 edging defending champion Michael Stoller of Bremen who touched in :45.65. The previous mark of :44.47 was held by Bloomington South's Manuel Guzman set at the 1988-89 meet. Wochomurka had earlier won the 200 individual medley with a winning effort of 1:51.37.

The other record was set in the one meter diving competition in which senior Phillip Jones of Hamilton Southeastern accumulated 623.90 points smashing the 23-year old mark of 576.05 points held by Chris Chelich of Munster in the 1977-78 meet. It was the oldest record standing.

Besides Wochomurka, two others collected two state championships.

Senior Matt McDonald of Hamilton Southeastern picked up two titles winning his third consecutive championship in the 100 butterfly in :48.18, just off his state meet record mark of :48.06 a year ago. And after a runner-up finish last year, McDonald also made off with the crown in the 100 backstroke in :49.95.

North Central junior Brian Hartley also was a double winner having won the 200 freestyle in 1:39.54 and defending his state title in the 500 freestyle in 4:28.99. Hartley won last year's 500 in 4:28.91.

Despite falling short in the 100 freestyle, Stoller managed to defend his title in the other sprint event – the 50 freestyle – in :20.52. The senior's winning time of :20.46 last year stands as the record.

After placing third in the 100 breaststroke last year, senior Matt Jeffries of Perry Meridian returned to win the event this time around in :57.22 and became his school's first boys swimming state champion. Fort Wayne Concordia, which had placed second in last year's 200 medley relay, edged Carmel at the wall by .07 hundredths of a second in 1:35.11 and won the first title in that school's history.

Senior Matt McDonald of Hamilton Southeastern High School was selected by the IHSAA Executive Committee as the winner of the Herman F. Keller Mental Attitude Award in boys swimming and diving. Farm Bureau Insurance, the IHSAA's longtime corporate partner, presented a $1,000 scholarship to Hamilton Southeastern High School in the name of McDonald.

State Finals Summary

Homestead gymnasts won an individual state title and had three top five individual finishers as the Spartans won their record sixth state championship at the 29th Annual IHSAA Gymnastics State Finals on Saturday, March 17, 2001 at Perry Meridian High School in Indianapolis.

Freshman Allyson Zipse won the floor exercise competition with a score of 9.775 and placed fourth in the vault to lead Homestead, which captured the top prize for the second time in three years. Homestead's 111.825 points edged first-time state finalist Lawrence Central with 111.075 points. Fort Wayne Bishop Dwenger finished third (110.600) and defending state champion Chesterton was fourth (109.900).

Also placing in the top five in individual competition for Homestead was senior Shellen Goltz, last year's all-around state champion, who finished second in the uneven bars. Goltz placed fifth in this year's all-around.

In winning the state title, Homestead, coached by Ericka McEvoy, broke a tie with Valparaiso for most championships by a school. All six of the school's state titles — 1983, 1984, 1985, 1996, 1999, 2001 — have come in girls gymnastics.

Sophomore Nicole Howe of Columbus East earned the all-around championship with a total of 38.425 points after finishing as the runner-up a year ago to Goltz. Howe, who won the balance beam competition with 9.625 points, placed second in the vault at 9.7 and took third in the uneven bars at 9.55. She had won the uneven bars state championship last year with a 9.575.

Rounding out the top five of the all-around was senior Leigh Ann Kennedy of Lawrence Central (37.850), senior Elizabeth Trahin of Fort Wayne Bishop Dwenger (37.575), senior Meghan Peacock of Lawrence Central (37.550) and Goltz (37.475).

In her first-ever appearance at the state meet, Peacock claimed the state championship in the vault with a score of 9.85. Also winning a state title was sophomore Lauren West of Chesterton who scored a 9.6 in the uneven bars.

All four of last year's individual state champions failed to repeat. Besides Howe's performance in the uneven bars, senior Elizabeth Minix of Fort Wayne Bishop Dwenger finished third in the vault, while junior Lisa Diederich of Crown Point was 12th in the floor exercise and Goltz finished 17th in the balance beam.

Katie Dyer of Merrillville High School was selected as the recipient of the Mildred M. Ball Mental Attitude Award by the IHSAA Executive Committee. Farm Bureau Insurance, the IHSAA's corporate partner, presented a $1,000 scholarship to Merrillville High School in the name of Dyer.

State Finals Summary

Class 4A

Fourth-ranked Pike turned up its defensive pressure after halftime to run away from eighth-ranked Penn for a 56-42 victory in the Class 4A championship game of the 91st Annual IHSAA Boys Basketball State Finals on Saturday, March 24, 2001 at Conseco Fieldhouse in Indianapolis.

Pike limited Penn to five third quarter points outscoring them by 13 after holding a 26-16 halftime lead and went on to its second state championship in the last four years. The Red Devils won the 1998 Class 4A state championship.

The victory also sent out-going coach Alan Darner into retirement with another title. Darner coached for 30 years, including the last six at Pike where he finished with a ledger of 109-37. He was 418-238 overall.

Pike set Class 4A championship game records for fewest points allowed and most steals. The Red Devils' 15 steals was one off of the overall state finals record of 16 set by Gary Roosevelt against Brebeuf in 1991. Penn committed 21 turnovers in the contest.

Chris Thomas of Pike led all scorers with 20 points. David Teague dropped in 16 points and Parnell Smith 10 for the Red Devils (26-3).

Penn was led in scoring by Andrew Laird's 14 points and Marqus Husband's 13. The Kingsmen (23-3), making their first appearance in the state finals, were coached by Dean Foster. Foster, in his third year at Penn, also guided Elkhart Central to the 1995 state finals.

Chris Thomas of Pike High School was named the 2001 recipient of the Arthur L. Trester Award for Mental Attitude in Class 4A basketball. Farm Bureau Insurance, the corporate partner of the Indiana High School Athletic Association, presented a $1,000 scholarship to Pike High School in the name of Thomas.

Attendance for the Class 3A and 4A contests was 14,358 for a four-game total of 26,435.

Class 3A

Two years after finishing as the state runner-up, Muncie Southside returned to win the Class 3A state championship in thrilling fashion — an 81-78 overtime victory over Evansville Mater Dei.

It was the third state championship in the school's history (Wrestling, 1974-75, 1989-90) but its first in boys basketball. They also became the first Muncie school to win a state title since Muncie Central in 1988.

The (Class 3A) second-ranked Rebels (23-3) finished with a 17-game winning streak upending the top-ranked Wildcats by hitting its free throws in the late-going of the overtime.

With 1:55 left in regulation, Mater Dei took a 62-58 lead on Jared Schiff's jumper, but Southside scored on its next two trips down the court. Brice Jones hit two free throws and rebounded a Mater Dei miss at the other end before Ryan Baumgartner hit a three-pointer to put Muncie back on top, 63-62. Travis Welch of Mater Dei hit the first of two free throws with 1:16 left to knot the score at 63-63.

In the overtime, Muncie Southside never trailed. Baumgartner started things off with a three-pointer with 3:19 to go and the Rebels hit seven of eight free throws down the stretch to salt the game away. Baumgartner, son of coach Rick Baumgartner, hit all four of his attempts and David Vance hit three of four in the final minute of play.

Muncie Southside had four players in double figures but Jones seemed to be everywhere for the Rebels. He finished with a double-double with 26 points on 7-of-16 shooting including a perfect 12-of-12 from the free throw line. He also hauled in 13 rebounds before fouling out with 2:37 remaining in overtime.

Dustin Furney and Brian Bell hit for 14 points each and Baumgartner tallied 13.

Evansville Mater Dei (26-2) was led in scoring by 6-9 junior center Matt Kiefer's 23 points. He finished 10-of-14 from the field. Jared Schiff knocked down 20 points and Welch 11.

Mater Dei, coached by Roger Sills, was making its first appearance in the state finals. The loss snapped Mater Dei's 15-game winning streak.

Brian Bell of Muncie Southside High School was selected as the recipient of the Arthur L. Trester Award for Mental Attitude in Class 3A Boys Basketball by the IHSAA Executive Committee. Farm Bureau Insurance, the corporate partner of the Indiana High School Athletic Association, presented a $1,000 scholarship to Muncie Southside High School in the name of Bell.

Class 2A

Harding's Trai Essex hit two free throws with :07.3 seconds remaining and the Hawks survived a last-second three-pointer by Batesville to win their first IHSAA state championship in boys basketball 73-70.

It was the school's third title and the first in a boys sport. The Hawks won girls track and field state championships in 1995 and 1996.

Harding (23-5) controlled the game through the first three quarters holding leads of 18-15 after one, 36-26 at the half and 55-42 after three. Harding led by as many as 16 points in the third quarter before Batesville made its move in the fourth quarter.

With 7:12 remaining and Harding holding a 57-43 advantage, Batesville proceeded on a 27-12 run capped by Chris Steinfort's two free throws with :30.2 left that put the Bulldogs in front 70-69. It was their first lead since late in the first period.

On the ensuing play, Harding guard Courtney Reese, who finished with six points, drove down the lane for a layin to put the Hawks back on top 71-70 with :12.7 left. Batesville then turned the ball over by losing it out-of-bounds in setting up its possible last play with :07.3 to go. The Bulldogs fouled Essex on the in-bounds sending him to the line for his last two free throws. Batesville's Matt Robbins last second three-point attempt clanged off the iron.

Essex finished with a double-double of 23 points and a Class 2A record 14 rebounds. David Tubbs added 12 points and J.T. Langston 11 for Harding.

Batesville's Jacob Garvin, averaging 14.0 points this season, finished with a Class 2A record 30 points. He hit 9-for-16 from the field, including 12-for-15 from the line. Steinfort hit for 16 and Dustin Hertel chipped in 10 for the Bulldogs.

Coach Al Gooden led the Hawks to their first appearance in the state finals and the first appearance by a Fort Wayne school since Fort Wayne Northrop won it all in 1974. Mel Siefert coached Batesville to its third appearance overall, but its first since 1943.

Matt Robbins of Batesville High School was selected by the IHSAA Executive Committee as the recipient of the Arthur L. Trester Award for Mental Attitude in Class 2A Boys Basketball. Farm Bureau Insurance, the corporate partner of the Indiana High School Athletic Association, presented a $1,000 scholarship to Batesville High School in the name of Robbins.

Attendance for the Class A and 2A games was 12,077.

Class A

Attica hit only two of four free throws in the closing seconds of the game, but it was enough for the Red Ramblers to hang on for a thrilling 64-62 victory over Blue River Valley and the Class A state championship.

Senior Josh Smith and sophomore Travis Kirby both hit the front end of their two free throws to give Attica its first state championship in school history. It was Attica's second trip to the basketball state finals and the first since 1929 when the finals were a 16-team affair.

With the game tied at 62-62 and :07.8 seconds remaining, Kirby sank the first free throw and missed the second but Blue River Valley lost the rebound out of bounds. On the in-bounds pass, Kirby was fouled and made the first of two free throws. Blue River Valley got the rebound after the miss, but the downcourt pass for a last shot was intercepted and thrown into the air by Attica's Mark Mattern as time expired.

Blue River Valley led 54-40 with 6:27 to go in the game, but Attica went on a 20-4 run capped by two free throws by Ryan Francis that put the Red Ramblers back on top at 60-58. It was their first lead since the 6:36 mark of the second period.

Smith, the winner of the Class A Football Mental Attitude Award in November, finished the game with 19 points, 11 in the first half. Kirby and Francis finished with nine points each. Ten of Attica's 12 players were part of the Red Ramblers' state runner-up team in football.

Blue River Valley was led by Kyle Cox's 30 points, the second-best output in a Class A championship game. Philip Griffith finished with 11 points and nine rebounds and Brandon Cool with 10 points for Blue River Valley.

Blue River Valley held a 33-22 rebounding advantage, but were hurt by 25 turnovers. Attica scored 19 points off those miscues.

The Red Ramblers (21-6) were coached by Ralph Shrader. Blue River Valley, coached by Barry Huckeby, finished 22-5 in its first state finals appearance in any sport.

Andy Brown of Blue River Valley High School was selected by the IHSAA Executive Committee as the recipient of the Arthur L. Trester Award in Class A Boys Basketball. Farm Bureau Insurance, the corporate partner of the Indiana High School Athletic Association, presented a $1,000 scholarship to Blue River Valley High School in the name of Brown.

State Finals Summary

Fort Wayne Northrop withstood a challenge from Carmel to claim a nine-point victory and successfully defend its title in the 28th Annual IHSAA Girls Track and Field State Finals on June 2, 2001.

Coached by Ted Knudson, the Bruins clinched their fourth IHSAA girls track & field state championship with a third-place finish in the meet's final event, the 1600 meter relay. Northrop totaled 55 points overall to finish ahead of second place Carmel with 46 points. The Greyhounds took eighth place in the final event. They were followed by South Bend Adams (44), North Central of Indianapolis (35) and Pike (30).

The meet was conducted under difficult conditions – intermittent rain, gusty winds and falling temperatures that reached 49 degrees at the end of the competition. Estimated attendance was 4,500.

Still, two teams bettered a venerable state meet record in the 400 meter relay, with Fort Wayne Northrop taking the title in 47.62. The Bruins were followed by North Central (Indianapolis) in 47.90. The previous record was shared by Gary Roosevelt (1983) and Fort Wayne Northrop (1990) in 47.91.

There were no other state meet records set and there were no repeat individual champions.

Junior Ashley Urick clocked in 4:58.51 and freshman Katie Harrington followed in 4:59.30 in the 1600 meters as Carmel took an early lead. The Greyhounds had opened the meet by winning the 3200 meter relay for the fourth time in the six-year history of the event. Carmel also had a strong double in the 3200 meters with senior Sarah Huddleston in fourth and Harrington in fifth.

Delta sophomore Christine Poulson became the first athlete from her school to win an IHSAA track and field state title when she cruised to a decisive victory in the 100 meters with an 11.93 clocking. Poulson also took seventh in the 200 meters.

Poulson was joined by four other athletes – senior Emily Loomis of Fort Wayne Bishop Luers, senior Christen Hanley of Zionsville, senior Whittney Stuart of Fort Wayne North Side, and sophomore Tiffany Redlarczyk of Lake Central – who won IHSAA girls track and field state titles for the first time in school history.

Loomis captured the high jump in 5-9.5 after finishing third in the event in 2000 and seventh in 1999. Hanley's 145-0 effort in the discus topped Andrea Dalla Rossa of Merrillville by three inches. Dalla Rossa came back to win the shot put in 44-1.5.

Redlarczyk blazed to a six-second victory in the 3200 meters, while Stuart claimed the 200 meters after finishing third in the 100 meters.

In other events:

Katie Dyer of Merrillville captured the 100 hurdles crown in 14.26 and finished second in the 300 meter hurdles to junior LaQuesha Taylor of South Bend Adams who clocked a 43.77.

Senior Michelle Smith of Bloomington North won the long jump in 19-7.5. Smith, who finished third in the 2000 state meet, posted the best winning effort in the state meet since 1995.

Freshman Temeka Kincy took the 400 meters in 57.06, followed by classmates Zakiya Robinson of Fort Wayne Northrop and Rachel Heneghan of Zionsville.

Emily Loomis of Fort Wayne Bishop Luers High School was selected by the IHSAA Executive Committee as the 2001 recipient of the Mental Attitude Award in Girls Track & Field. Farm Bureau Insurance, the IHSAA corporate partner, presented a $1,000 scholarship to Bishop Luers High School in the name of Loomis.

A total of 366 athletes from 6,067 schools participated in the tournament series.

State Finals Summary

Scoring in 11 of the 16 events and highlighted by an individual state champion and a winning relay team, Lawrence North captured its first team championship since 1990 and second title overall by a 16-point margin in the 98th Annual IHSAA Boys Track and Field State Finals on June 1, 2001.

After a cold and wet day, the meet was conducted in sunny and breezy conditions with the temperature near 60 degrees before an estimated crowd of 5,500.

Lawrence North finished with 65 points and was followed by North Central (Indianapolis) with 49 points, defending state champion Carmel (34) and Fort Wayne Northrop (32).

It is the fifth IHSAA state title overall for Lawrence North and first since it won the IHSAA wrestling crown in 1993. The Wildcats were coached by Bob Potter, who also directed the 1990 state championship team. Lawrence North's winning efforts came in the long jump and the 4 x 400 relay.

Individually, Matthew Campbell of White River Valley and Leroy Dixon of South Bend LaSalle shined brightest in a field of stars.

Campbell broke the 14-year-old state meet record in the pole vault by going 16-9 to best Paul Gensic of Carroll (Fort Wayne) in a torrid battle that saw both seniors exceed the previous state record. Campbell won top honors in a jump off, but both vaulters will share the state meet record. Campbell joins Mark Buse of Southridge (1988-90-91) as the only three-time IHSAA state champions in the pole vault.

Dixon was the meet's only double winner in the 100 meters and 200 meters. Dixon, a junior, won the 100 meters by a comfortable margin in 10.43. He also posted a decisive victory in the 200 meters in 21.3. Dixon is the first athlete to double in the sprints since Trellus Washington of Elkhart Central in 1993.

In the first of two down-to-the wire distance races, senior Chris Swisher of Milan kicked to a furious finish in the 1600 meters to overtake defending state champion Aaron Fisher of Franklin Central at the tape. Swisher, was timed in 4:16.44, followed by Fisher at 4:16.89 and senior Eric Redman of North Central (Indianapolis) in 4:16.94. Swisher is the first Milan athlete to win an individual title in boys track and field.

The 3200 meters also featured a photo finish with Robert Smitson of Brebeuf Jesuit holding off defending state champion Charlie Koeppen as both seniors dove to the tape. Smitson was clocked in 9:05.72, Koeppen in 9:05.73. Smitson is Brebeuf's first state champion since Greg VanWinkle won the mile run in 1977.

In other events:

Freshman Lorenzo Swanson of South Bend Clay captured the 100 high hurdles in 14.27.

Mike Taylor, a senior at Portage, repeated in the 800 meters in 1:52.30. He won 2000 state title in 1:53.47.

Senior Ronald Elliott of Fort Wayne Wayne grabbed the 300 intermediate hurdles title in 38.31.

Taylor Treesh, a senior at DeKalb, became the school's first individual state champion since 1971 and second ever with a 182-3 effort to win the discus.

Senior Garland Porter of Ben Davis won the shot put decisively with a 60-1.5 toss.

Merrillville senior Ben Daniel prevailed in a tight high jump battle. Daniel was one of six jumpers to clear 6-6. He won on the basis of fewer misses.

The long jump title went to junior Marcus Lewis of Lawrence North by one-quarter inch over senior Ryan Hahaj of Fort Wayne North Side. Lewis fouled on five of his six attempts, but made his one good jump count at 23-6. Hahaj finished at 23-5.75.

Chris Swisher of Milan High School was selected by the IHSAA Executive Committee as the 2001 recipient of the Robert S. Hinshaw Mental Attitude Award in Boys Track & Field. Farm Bureau Insurance, the IHSAA corporate partner, presented a $1,000 scholarship to Milan High School in the name of Swisher.

A total of 7,152 athletes representing 368 schools began competition at the sectional level.

State Finals Summary

Team

It took Terre Haute South three consecutive trips to the championship round, but the Braves finally won the big prize with a convincing 5-0 victory over Anderson Highland in the 27th Annual IHSAA Girls Tennis State Finals on Saturday, June 2, 2001 at North Central High School in Indianapolis.

It was the school's first team championship in any sport in 30 years as an IHSAA-member school (1971-72). The third-ranked Braves (20-0-1) of coach Bill Blankenbaker returned following state runner-up finishes the last two years to North Central of Indianapolis in 1999 and to Park Tudor a year ago. The Braves also had finished in a second-place tie in 1981, their first appearance, when the state finals were run on a point system.

With the Braves leading 2-0 on wins at No. 2 and 3 singles, the No. 1 doubles team of Amberlee Jackson and Katie Knepper clinched the crown with its 6-3, 6-1 victory over Aimee Ripberger and Ellen Keris.

Kristen Clary completed a perfect 27-0 season at No. 2 singles defeating Betsy Gentry of Anderson Highland, 6-2, 6-4. Helen Hildebrand took a 6-0, 6-2 decision from Evonne Hammel at No. 3 singles.

With the overall outcome already decided, Terre Haute South's Lauren Clary was a 6-3, 6-3 winner over previously unbeaten Ashlee Davis of Anderson Highland. Davis, last year's runner-up in the state singles competition as a freshman, completed her sophomore campaign 17-1.

Michelle Favila and Laura Hodge managed to complete the sweep at No. 2 doubles with a 6-4, 4-6, 6-0 win over Lora Ashton and Stephanie Smith.

Seventh-ranked Anderson Highland, coached by Jim Hostetler, finished out 20-4 in its first appearance in the state finals. The Scots also were looking to capture the school's first team championship in any sport.

In the morning semifinals, Terre Haute South pulled off the upset knocking off top-ranked North Central, 3-2. Though both schools hail from the Metropolitan Interscholastic Conference, they did not meet during the regular season. North Central, which beat Terre Haute South for the 1999 state championship and owns a state-best 10 titles, finished 20-3, under coach Heather Iffert. In 14 trips to the state finals, it was just the second time (1994) the Panthers had not finished either first or second.

With the match knotted at 2-2, Hildebrand won a three-setter from Serena Burkard at No. 3 singles, 3-6, 6-4, 6-2, to clinch Terre Haute South's spot in the championship round.

North Central's No. 1 doubles tandem of Karin Agness and Hillary Friedman won twice on the day to keep its perfect record intact at 27-0 and will play in next weekend's doubles state finals.

Anderson Highland took all three singles matches in straight sets and beat 18th-ranked Merrillville, 4-1, in the other semifinal match. Merrillville (17-3), under coach David Zimmerman, also was making its first appearance in the state finals.

North Central swept Merrillville, 5-0, in the consolation round.

Lauren Clary of Terre Haute South was selected by members of the IHSAA Executive Committee as the recipient of the Mental Attitude Award in Girls Tennis. Farm Bureau Insurance, the IHSAA's corporate partner, presented a check for $1,000 to Terre Haute South High School in the name of Lauren Clary.

A total of 3,138 athletes from 303 schools began competition at the sectional level.

Singles

Park Tudor senior Katie Martzolf completed an outstanding high school career by winning her record fourth consecutive state championship — a 6-2, 6-4 victory over Castle senior Lindsay Martin — on Saturday, June 9, 2001 in the 20th Annual IHSAA Singles State Finals at North Central High School in Indianapolis.

With the victory, Martzolf became just the second player to capture four state titles joining Castle's Lenae Renschler who won four straight from 1983-86.

Just as incredible was the fact that Martzolf went unbeaten during her four years at Park Tudor High School finishing 99-0 and was a part of two state championship teams in 1998 and 2000. Besides her 23-0 finish this season, she finished 29-0 as a junior in 2000; 27-0 as a sophomore in 1999 and; 20-0 as a freshman in 1998. She was coached by Dave Heffern.

She defeated Julie Beekman of Marion for the state championship in her first two years — 6-3, 4-6, 7-6 (7-4) in 1998 and 6-4, 7-6 (7-2) in 1999; and bested Ashlee Davis of Anderson Highland, 6-4, 6-2, in 2000.

Martzolf's victory also gave Park Tudor a sweep of the state singles titles for the 2000-01 school year as classmate Brandon Gill won the boys crown last fall.

For Martin, it was her first trip to the championship match in four appearances in the state finals. She finished 28-1 this season. Martin had advanced to the quarterfinal round during her freshman and sophomore years and was eliminated by Martzolf in the semifinals in 2000. Martin went 58-3 over the last two years, with all three losses coming in the state finals, two of them to Martzolf.

Martzolf had advanced to the title round with a 6-0, 6-1 semifinal victory over senior Flynne Weingarten of South Bend Clay, while Martin defeated Lawrence Central sophomore Laura Trimble, 6-3, 6-3 in the other match. Trimble (21-6) defeated Weingarten (27-2), 6-3, 6-2, in the consolation match.

Doubles

The North Central doubles team of junior Karin Agness and freshman Hillary Friedman claimed the state title with a 6-2, 6-1 victory over Delta juniors Sarah Peckinpaugh and Ashli Smith in the 11th Annual IHSAA Doubles State Finals on Saturday, June 9, 2001 at North Central High School in Indianapolis.

The win, their 11th straight in the tournament, also capped a perfect season as the Panthers' No. 1 doubles team finished 30-0. Last weekend, they helped North Central to a third place finish in the state team competition.

They also became the fourth team from North Central to wear the state crown (1977, 1993 and 1997). The victory was especially sweet for Agness, who joins her sister, Christy as a state champion. Christy Agness teamed with Laura Waggoner to win the tournament in 1997.

Agness and Friedman, advanced to the championship round as a result of their 6-4, 6-1 decision over Warsaw seniors Kara Kesler and Amber Barrett in the semifinals.

Peckinpaugh and Smith, who suffered their first loss of the year to finish 20-1, earned their spot in the final match with a 6-1, 6-2 win over senior Audra Mattingly and freshman Jeanne Hartley of Jasper.

Mattingly and Hartley finished 31-4 following their 6-3, 6-7 (7-3), 6-2 consolation victory over Kesler and Barrett. The Warsaw team finished its year 27-5.

State Finals Summary

Displaying outstanding team balance with three individuals in the top 20, Mishawaka Marian claimed its first IHSAA title in boys golf with a record score of 589 in the 65th Annual State Finals on June 14, 2001 at The Legends of Indiana Golf Course in Franklin.

After taking a one-stroke lead over Zionsville in the first round at 294, Mishawaka Marian came back with the best score of the second round as well at 295. Senior David Lindley led the Knights with a final-round 71.

Zionsville, whose 598 also bettered the previous 36-hole team tournament score, had entered the state tournament ranked No. 2 in the coaches association poll. Yorktown was No. 1, while Mishawaka Marian was ninth.

The top two teams were followed by Bloomington South (602), Warsaw (603) and Richmond (606). Defending state champion Evansville North finished sixth at 607.

Sophomore Cole Isban and junior Daniel Klauer paced Mishawaka Marian with 36-hole totals of 143, one stroke off the individual pace. They were followed by David Lindley (148), senior Daniel Fitzpatrick (155) and junior Stephen Cashore (158). The Knights were coached by Jim Kryder.

The previous 36-hole team record in the 65-year history of the event was 599 by Noblesville in 1998 at Prestwick Country Club in Avon.

It was the fifth IHSAA title overall for Mishawaka Marian and the first since the Knights claimed the Class 2A football crown in 1976.

Senior Steven Lowe of LaPorte survived a one-hole playoff with senior Jason Buffone of Lake Central to win medalist honors at 142. Lowe tapped in a short par putt on the par-five, 501-yard 10th hole, while Buffone three-putted for a bogey six.

Lowe and Buffone recorded the third lowest 36-hole scores in tournament history. The record remained at 139, set by Gary Gant of North Central (Indianapolis) in 1970. Lowe and Buffone are two of six players to finish at 142 since the tournament adopted a 36-hole format in 1970 when the first of 17 state finals was played at Old Oakland Golf Club in Indianapolis.

Lowe went into the second round one stroke out of the lead at 69 and fired a one-over-par 73. Buffone was four strokes behind first-round leader Robert Davidge of Culver Military but came through with a 70 to fight his way into the playoff. Buffone shared second-day low honors with David Kelvin of Zionsville. Davidge followed his first-round 68 with a 75 to finish at 143 with Isban and Klauer.

Lowe is the second LaPorte player to win IHSAA boys golf medalist honors, joining Rudy Boyd who was the co-medalist in 1951.

The Legends of Indiana served as the host site of the IHSAA State Finals for the first time. Recent host sites were Prestwick (1987-2000) and Old Oakland (1970-1986).

Heath Peters of Garrett was named the 2001 recipient of the Fred Keesling Award for Mental Attitude in IHSAA Boys Golf by the IHSAA Executive Committee. Farm Bureau Insurance, corporate partner of the IHSAA, presented a $1,000 scholarship to Garrett High School in the name of Peters.

State Finals Summary

Class 3A

Castle finished a 12-game late-season run with its first IHSAA softball state title, besting Pendleton Heights 4-1, in the Class 3A game of the 17th Annual IHSAA State Finals on June 9, 2001 at Cherry Tree Softball Complex in Carmel.

In a game that was tight for six innings, the Knights (29-6) broke it open in the top of the seventh inning with two runs. With runners at second and third and one out, Mendy Martin's single through the left side scored Lauren Egierski. Kaleigh Gossman followed with another single down the leftfield line that scored Krista Keener. Egierski and Keener both singled to lead off the inning and advanced on a sacrifice bunt.

Both teams were playing in their first state championship game. It was the fourth IHSAA state title in all sports for Castle, the first for a girls team and the second championship of the 2000-01 school year. The boys soccer team captured the 2000 state title in the fall.

All 13 hits in the game were singles.

Both teams broke through in the fourth inning. Castle, coached by Pat Lockyear, took a 2-0 lead in the top half as Ashley Lawyer's single to right centerfield scored Katie Goldbach with one out. Lawyer eventually scored on a fielder's choice.

Pendleton Heights (24-10), coached by Scott Hall, retaliated with a run in the bottom of the fourth as Julie Owens reached base on a fielder's choice with one out and scored all the way from first on Tiffany LaRue's two-out single to right center. The Arabians threatened to score again, but Castle quelled the storm with two Pendleton Heights runners left on base.

Beth Harmon (25-6) went the distance for Castle with seven strikeouts. Rachel Harless, who pitched the first three and one-third innings, took the loss (11-4) for Pendleton Heights.

Castle held off Lake Central, 3-2, in the semfinals, while Pendleton Heights took a 4-1 decision from Indianapolis Cathedral in the second semifinal game.

Sarah Ford of Castle High School was named the 2001 recipient of the Class 3A Mental Attitude Award by the IHSAA Executive Committee. Farm Bureau Insurance, corporate partner of the IHSAA, presented a check for $1,000 to Castle High School in Ford's name. She plans to attend Indiana University, majoring in dietetics and nursing.

Class 2A

Roncalli's bats were too much for Gibson Southern as the Rebels collected their second Class 2A state title in three years with a decisive 13-1 victory.

Led by Emily Kavanaugh, Ashley Werner and Erin Kavanaugh with three hits a piece, Roncalli (26-9) set a state championship game record in all classes with 17 hits.

Roncalli took a 2-0 lead after one inning, moved to 5-0 after two innings and 9-0 after four on its way to an eighth consecutive victory.

The loss ended a 23-game winning streak for Gibson Southern (28-6), which was making its first appearance in the state finals.

Roncalli, coached by Jim Padgett, set Class 2A championship game records for hits (17), hits in an inning (4), runs (13), and most runs in an inning (4 in the fourth). Roncalli and Gibson Southern also combined to set Class 2A state championship game two-team records for hits (24) and runs (14).

The three hits by Roncalli's Emily Kavanaugh, Ashley Werner and Erin Kavanaugh broke the Class 2A individual record for hits in a championship game. Other significant individual records were set by Emily Kavanaugh with three runs in a championship game, and most runs batted in (2) by Werner and Ashley Bencik of Roncalli.

Gibson Southern, coached by Jason Blackard, trailed most of the game, but rallied for two runs in the bottom of the seventh inning for a 3-2 semifinal victory over Woodlan. Roncalli followed with a 3-0 triumph over Cass for its spot in the title game.

Senior Christy Utnage of Roncalli was named the 2001 recipient of the Class 2A Mental Attitude Award by the IHSAA Executive Committee. Farm Bureau Insurance, corporate partner of the IHSAA, presented a check for $1,000 to Roncalli High School in the name of Utnage.

Class A

Junior Jayme Knies tossed a no-hitter to lead Forest Park to a 3-0 victory over top-ranked Indianapolis Lutheran and the IHSAA Class A title.

The championship came in just the fourth season of Forest Park softball and also gave the school its first IHSAA title in any sport.

The teams battled through four scoreless innings before Forest Park (25-2) struck for the winning run on Jayme Luebbehusen's single to centerfield that scored Manda Wagner.

Forest Park, coached by Greg Durcholz, also tallied runs in the sixth and seventh innings to add support for Knies' pitching effort that included five strikeouts. The no-hitter for Knies was the fifth in state championship history and the first in Class A. Indianapolis Lutheran (29-3-1), coached by Joe Tilford, stranded three runners and no runner reached third base.

Offensively, senior Katie Miller set a Class A championship game record with three hits in four at-bats.

The Rangers went to extra innings and then rallied with two runs in the bottom of the ninth to oust Pioneer, 2-1, to earn a berth in the championship contest. Indianapolis Lutheran followed with a 4-1 triumph over Eastside behind a 13-strikeout performance by Bobbi-Leigh Pietz in the second game.

Katie Miller of Forest Park High School was named the IHSAA Mental Attitude Award for 2001 in Class A Softball by the IHSAA Executive Committee. Farm Bureau Insurance, corporate partner of the IHSAA, presented a check for $1,000 to Forest Park High School in Miller's name.

A total of 6,250 student athletes from 351 schools began competition at the sectional level.

State Finals Summary

Class 4A

Striking quickly as the first three batters of the game connected for first-pitch base hits, the Penn Kingsmen grabbed an early lead and cruised to a 18-5 victory over Castle in the Class 4A championship game of the 35th Annual IHSAA State Finals on Saturday, June 16, 2001 at Victory Field in Indianapolis.

It was the third IHSAA baseball championship in the past eight seasons for Penn.

Senior Eric Moore, who quarterbacked the Penn football team to the IHSAA Class 5A football title in the fall, started the onslaught with a single to lead off the game. Jon Lies followed with another single, and Dave Zachary brought both home with a double to right center. Zachary stroked two more 2-RBI base hits in the second inning as Penn built a 13-0 lead.

Castle pulled to 13-4 after three innings, but Penn erupted for three more runs in the fourth inning.

Penn broke the all-time state championship game record for runs in a game in the fifth inning when Billy Grace scored on Bryan Harrell's single and fourth RBI of the game to make it 17-4. Three of the top five marks for most runs scored in a championship game occurred in the 2001 state finals topped by the Kingsmen's 18 runs.

The Kingsmen also broke their own record for most hits in a game with 19 when Brian Grupp singled to leftfield in the seventh inning. Penn's total of 18 hits in the 1998 Class 4A championship game had been the previous standard.

Penn, coached by Greg Dikos in all three championship seasons (1994, 1998-Class 4A), finished 34-2. Castle, led by coach Dave Sensenbrenner, ended its state runner-up campaign at 27-8.

During the 2000-01 school year, Penn became the first school in IHSAA history to play in the state championship game in football, boys basketball (Class 4A) and baseball (4A) in the same school year. The Kingsmen have won 11 IHSAA titles in all sports, nine coming in the past decade.

Penn defeated Munster, 7-1, for its spot in the championship game and Castle edged Perry Meridian, 1-0, in the other semifinal.

Matthew Keener of Castle High School, was selected by the IHSAA Executive Committee as the 2001 recipient of the L.V. Phillips Award for Mental Attitude in Class 4A baseball. Farm Bureau Insurance, corporate partner of the IHSAA, presented a $1,000 check to Castle High School in the name of Keener.

Class 3A

Indianapolis Cathedral batted around in the first inning on its way to a six-run uprising that resulted in a 16-0 victory over Griffith for the Class 3A championship, its first IHSAA baseball state title.

After the first inning, the Irish plated one in the second, four in the third, four more in the fourth and one more in the seventh.

Cathedral's 16 runs set the Class 3A record for most in a championship game and, following the 2001 state finals, ranked as the second most ever in championship game history. Three of the top five marks for most runs scored in a championship game occurred in 2001.

Also, the six-run first inning equaled the Class 3A record for most in an inning. The Irish also set a new mark for at-bats with 41. Their 17 hits, a Class 3A record, was one short of the overall record.

Richey Bradshaw scored twice with an RBI on 3 for 3 hitting, while Kevin Miller went 4 for 5 with three runs and two RBI. Sam Sellery, who went 2 for 4, scored twice and drove in two runs, tied the championship game record with two triples.

Michael Lauck (7-3) pitched the first five innings and earned the victory. Tony Rodriguez (4-2), the first of five Griffith pitchers, collected the loss.

The Irish, coached by Rich Andriole, finished 25-6 in their first appearance in the state finals. Griffith, under Brian Jennings, ended 27-7 while also making the school's first trip to state.

It was the 12th IHSAA state title overall for Indianapolis Cathedral in six different sports. The Irish have celebrated eight state championships in the last four years.

Cathedral advanced to the finals via a 6-5 decision over Evansville Memorial. The Irish tallied three runs in the bottom of the seventh inning for the victory. Griffith, meanwhile, had to go to 10 innings before defeating Columbia City, 6-4, in the other semifinal.

Bill Potter, a senior at Indianapolis Cathedral High School, was chosen by the IHSAA Executive Committee as the 2001 recipient of the L.V. Phillips Mental Attitude Award in Class 3A baseball. Farm Bureau Insurance, corporate partner of the IHSAA, presented a $1,000 check to Cathedral High School in the name of Potter.

Class 2A

Northfield rallied for four runs in the top of the seventh inning and won the Class 2A state championship, 4-2, over Speedway.

The Norsemen (28-5), making their initial appearance in the baseball state finals, won the first state title in the school's history in any sport.

Trailing 2-0 going into the seventh, Northfield's rally began when Jason Stanley launched a one-out double over the leftfielder that rolled to the wall, scoring Eric Highley and Shawn Smith to knot the game at 2-2. Highley was a pinch runner for Nich Good, who reached on a fielder's choice, and Smith walked. Chad McWhirt delivered the winning hit, a two-out single hit sharply up the middle to score Josh Merrick and Stanley.

The Sparkplugs (23-9) scored a run in the first inning and again in the sixth. B.J. Grove singled to rightfield scoring Jimmy Rust who led off the game with a single and stole second base. Speedway took a 2-0 lead in the sixth inning when Mark Gonzales singled scoring Eric Mattingly. Mattingly had reached on a fielding error and stole second base.

Stanley earned the victory (10-0) striking out six in six innings of work before Smith came on in the seventh for the save. Mattingly suffered the loss (9-4) after coming on in relief of Trevor Nelis, who had pitched the first 6 1/3 innings. Stanley was the first batter that Mattingly faced in the seventh.

Northfield reached the championship game with a 2-1 semifinal victory over Leo on Friday, while Speedway advanced with a 2-1, eight inning decision over Eastern (Pekin).

Northfield was coached by Tony Uggen and Speedway by Bruce Hutchings.

Andrew Rosner, the starting catcher for Speedway's Class 2A state runners-up, was selected by the IHSAA Executive Committee as the 2001 recipient of the L.V. Phillips Award for Mental Attitude in Class 2A baseball. Farm Bureau Insurance, corporate partner of the IHSAA, presented a $1,000 check to Speedway High School in the name of Rosner.

Class A

Triton scored three runs in the first inning and went on to a 13-0 victory over Adams Central in the Class A state championship game at Victory Field in Indianapolis.

It was the first baseball title in the school's history (first in any boys sport) and the third IHSAA state title overall, with all coming in the last two years. Triton's girls basketball team won the IHSAA Class A crown in 2000 and 2001.

The Trojans (24-10), coached by Jim Shively, hit the Adams Central pitching staff for three runs in the first inning. Triton added two runs each in the fourth and fifth innings and six more in the top of the seventh.

The 13 runs set a Class A championship game record and, at the conclusion of the 2001 state finals, ranked as the fifth-most ever recorded in a championship game. Three of the top five marks for most runs scored in a championship game occurred in 2001.

Jacob Burnett pitched a complete game for the win (5-2) allowing only three hits and fanning seven batters. Burnett, also produced offensively going 4 for 4, scoring three runs and batted in another.

Joey Potter went 2 for 4 scoring three times for Triton and Tyson Blackford went 2 for 3 with a run and an RBI.

Houk (4-8) absorbed the loss for Adams Central, which finished 20-13, under first year coach Herb Bergman.

Triton earned its berth in the championship contest by way of its 1-0 semifinal victory over Madison Shawe. Adams Central took a 9-3 decision from Tecumseh in the other game.

In two state finals games, Triton's defense did not allow a run and surrendered just four base hits, including its one-hit shutout of Madison Shawe in the semifinals.

Nicholas Houk, a senior at Adams Central High School, was chosen by the IHSAA Executive Committee as the 2001 recipient of the L.V. Phillips Mental Attitude Award in Class A baseball. Farm Bureau Insurance, corporate partner of the IHSAA, presented a $1,000 check to Adams Central High School in the name of Nicholas Houk.

A total of 374 schools entered 7,004 student athletes at the sectional level.
